The Committee decided to hold another Coffee morning on Thursday 19th July 2018 - 11.00am to 1.00pm

Sue Baker agreed to purchase the milk, biscuits and cakes.

Windsor requested a large box in which to store the Christmas Decorations. Rob will organize.

Further discussions took place on our Data Protection Policy, following the new GDPR on 25th May.

Robert Wigginton was unable to attend, so Annis Paul will liaise with Roger Leaver on a way forward to ensure we have compliance

Any Other Business

The documents and entry forms for “The Best Kept Village Hall” as mentioned in the GAVO magazine, was not sent in.

The Committee has decided to enter next year.

Rob has organized a Bird Box and a Bat Box.

Annis Paul has several boxes of bedding plants to donate, plus more bedding plants has been donated by Paul (grass cutter)

Rob Baker will arrange the base filling in of the two beds, and Annis Paul will purchase 9 bags of Compost.

Sue suggested holding a Gardening Club, to exchange plants, plant up beds, make suggestions for improvement to the Village Hall site and help plant Autumn bulbs.

Sue will advertise the Club on Facebook.

Roger Leaver will include in the Newsletter.

Brian Paul mentioned that the subscription to the Gavo magazine was free for the first year.

The charges for the second year, has now been abandoned.

The Gavo Magazine is now available free online.
